OZ COMBINED REALTY

- Huge water storage tanks with capacity to hold over 11,000 liters of water.
- Save on electricity costs all year round with Solar Panels
- Large Garden shed and storage areas
- Two separate double carports plus large double garage
- Lots of off-street parking for extra vehicles
- The kids will love the big backyard

There is so much to enjoy and appreciate about this property that you won't find in the usual suburban family home. There is the versatile floor plan, the studio apartment, the extra off-street parking and security, the massive backyard. There will still be plenty of backyard even if you put in the pool. The great thing is as the kids get older and everyone needs more space and privacy it is already right here, but you all get to stay under the one roof. Once you can call it home you will want to stay forever. owners have bought and must sell!
